Updates

Rules and Regulations for Cannabis Procedures

As of May 30, 2024, the Department of Cannabis Regulations updated its Rules and Regulations for Cannabis Procedures.

Specifically, Regulation 5 was changed to:

- Add a Major violation type for relocation modifications performed without DCR approval;
- Allow cannabis and cannabis goods to be displayed in a place where it is visible from outside the Business Premises;
- Allow curbside delivery for retail licensees only;
and
- Remove the motor carrier permit requirement for delivery licensees.

Regulation 6 was changed to:

- Require submission of the Successor In Interest Form (LIC-4018-FORM) with each annual renewal, if one has not been submitted or if there is an update;
- Remove the requirement for Storefront Retail Commercial Cannabis Activity (Type 10) Microbusiness with onsite sales (Type 12) to have a County Public Health Emblem Placard to renew for calendar year 2026; and
- Clarify what it means to "cease" commercial cannabis activity pursuant to LAMC Section 104.12(d).

- A decorative header consisting of a string of yellow, circular lights arranged in a gentle arc across the top of the slide. The background is a solid, dark blue color.
- Additionally, all of Regulation 9 was updated based on City Council's approval of new fee waiver funding.
