Compliance with Operational Requirements

Compliance Inspections & the CRC

All licensed retailers must comply with Regulation No. 5 - Operational Requirements and Violations.

If a Compliance Inspection is completed prior to CRC, the staff report will reflect any deficiencies found and the status of compliance.

Attestations

ENF-3003-FORM (License Attestation)

- Attestation must be submitted within 30 days from the date a Licensed Entity begins operations.
- Owner and personnel declare they have received, read, and understand all applicable operational regulations described in the Rules and Regulations.

The Self-Assessment Checklist & Common Deficiencies

The Self-Assessment Checklist & Common Deficiencies

Prior to the inspection, DCR strongly recommends that you go through the self-assessment checklist to identify and rectify any deficiencies.

- This checklist is provided to inform you about what DCR will inspect so that the business can comply and mitigate any potential fines.
- It is provided as a courtesy and any self inspection is optional but highly encouraged.
- You are not required to complete the checklist and it does not need to be returned to DCR.

Violation Types

Violation Types

(common violation examples)

Major ($42,026)	Moderate ($21,013)	Minor ($7,006)
<ul style="list-style-type: none">> Licenses Required> Transacting with Non-Licensees> Cooperation> DCR Access to Premises> Cannabis Testing> Violations of State Cannabis Law	<ul style="list-style-type: none">> Advertising> Employee Age> Physical Changes Without Approval> Surveillance System & Cameras> Security Plans> Limited Access Areas	<ul style="list-style-type: none">> Operational Status> Use of DBA> Display of License> Employee IDs> Conduct at Business Premises> Compliance Attestation

Violation Types

Notice to Correct VS. Notice of Violation

Most deficiencies may be handled by the issuance of a Notice to Correct which carries no penalties; however, a Notice to Correct will set a deadline for compliance. If compliance is not met by the deadline, DCR may issue a Notice of Violation (NOV), which includes fines for non-compliance. Use the self-assessment checklist to estimate the amount of non-compliance fines associated with a potential NOV that will otherwise be issued by DCR if corrective actions are not taken.

Appointment Notification

Appointment Notification

A DCR analyst will notify the business 48 hours in advance when the Compliance Inspection will occur

You may request a different date but DCR recommends you keep the appointment provided to you. The hearing date for the Cannabis Regulation Commission (CRC) to review your Annual License Application will remain the same.

Overview of the Inspection Process

Inspection Preparation

When we arrive at the facility we're looking for the following:
